

Fairwood Park Wedding Brochure 2010

Many congratulations to you both on your engagement. We hope that you will be very happy in your new life together and will do everything in our power to make the occasion of your marriage the most special day of your life.

Fairwood Park is a venue with an established reputation as a superb location for that special day in your life, set in the beautiful Gower Peninsula, with stunning views over our championship golf course that provide an ideal backdrop for those all important photographs and videos of your special day. We are confident you will not receive a better welcome or service for your special occasion, and if required we also have 6 bedrooms available should anybody wish to stay overnight.

Weddings are a special occasion for a special couple. Planning for that big day is all important. However, it can also be extremely stressful trying to ensure that all details are carefully looked after. At Fairwood Park we recognise that fact and will do all in our power to make your wedding day completely stress free.

When you have planned your day the rest can be left to us. We can manage all your requirements from your arrival to departure at our clubhouse. We endeavour to make each occasion special and unique to your tastes and requirements. But don't take our word for it. Feel free to call or email us to arrange a meeting where you can discuss all your requirements with our functions manager. Our philosophy is simple - we tailor your day precisely to your needs.
